HARTSVILLE VETERANS MEMORIAL

Dedication and Flag Raising Ceremony

November 11, 2010
11:00 a.m.

Burry Park, Downtown Hartsville, SC

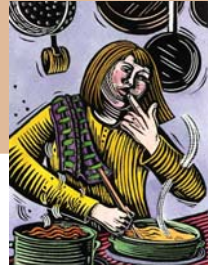

Above: special craftsmen work diligently to complete the new Veterans Memorial in downtown Hartsville. Note the military insignia medallion and stars along the flooring in front of the panels.

At right: Mrs. Nancy McGee reviews the program script in readiness for the November 11th dedication and flag raising ceremony in Burry Park.

City of Hartsville offices and departments are closed, Tuesday, Nov. 2nd for Election Day, and Thursday, November 11th for Veterans Day.

Hartsville enjoys A Taste of Coker!

Youngsters and oldsters alike spent the evening at Coker College's soccer fields enjoying the 2010 Taste of Coker food festival. The Thursday, October 28th event was the annual fund-raising festivity aiding the Coker Athletic programs.

ROLLCART PICK UP DATE CHANGE:

If your rollcart is normally collected on Tuesday, November 2nd, please note the new pick up date of WED., Nov. 3rd.

NOTE: No recycling services.

W. Reaves McCall Gallery dedication.

involvement with the museum and the commission. After a lovely luncheon hosted by the museum staffs, Mr. McCall was honored on his 80th birthday with a cake and plenty of good wishes. Looking on is Mr. McCall's niece Beth Gibson of Atlanta.

If you or your organization are hosting an event held within the city limits, you will require a SPECIAL EVENTS PERMIT. This application can be found on our website: www.hartsvilleesc.com, or by calling the Hartsville Parks and City Facilities department at 843-339-2878.
