Cpl. Lance Robinson

Marine Corporal Lance Robinson arrives in Hartsville.

On Friday, February 4, 2011, in the middle of a downpour, Marine Corporal Lance Robinson walked across the Prestwood Lake bridge toward downtown Hartsville pulling all his belongings behind him. Cpl. Robinson is on a mission to walk the entire lower 48 United States in support of our veteran troops, firefighters, police officers and any other protective units who keep our citizens out of harm's way. To date, he has visited 13 states since he began his journey on August 1st, 2010, from his home in Delmont, PA.

Councilmember Billy Shirley (District #6) presented an official proclamation from the City of Hartsville to Cpl. Robinson declaring September 10, 2011, as official "Brother To Brother Day".

Fire Chief Jeff Burr and Interim Police Chief Jerry Thompson each presented fire and police patches to Cpl. Robinson to place on his backpack and cart amongst the others he has received along the way. After a short prayer from many who attended the ceremony outside at city hall, Cpl. Robinson was on his way once again to the next town.

The City of Hartsville is proud to have honored such a memorable and humble Marine.
