Mayor Pennington addresses first State of City.

On Monday evening, March 7, 2011, to an almost full house, Mayor Mel Pennington addressed the citizens of Hartsville on the stage at Coker College's Performing Arts Center. Following the first ever State of the City speech, a reception welcoming new City Manager Natalie Zeigler was held.

Sharing the stage with Mayor Pennington were Councilmembers Adlena Graham, Bernice Wilson, Wanda James, Mayor Pro-Tem Johnny Andrews, Robert Braddock and William Shirley, along with City Manager Natalie Zeigler. Robert McGee of McGee Financial Group introduced the Mayor and Rev. Bill Perry of Hartsville Community Fellowship gave the invocation.
