

©2011
City of Hartsville, SC
133 W. Carolina Ave.
843-339-2868

Vol. 2, Issue 38 — April 12, 2011
It's our second year!

All-America City
HARTSVILLE
South Carolina

www.hartsvillesc.com

City of Hartsville • electronic magazine

E-ZINE

MAY I HAVE YOUR ATTENTION Please

THERE'S A NEW CHIEF IN TOWN

On Tuesday, April 5th, 2011, at 5pm, city officials announce the new Chief of Police, Sandra Rhodes. With nearly twenty years in law enforcement, Rhodes has a strong background in community oriented policing and problem solving. She was previously Captain of the Horry County Police Department. Rhodes has experience performing a variety of public relations duties and brings to the position a proven commitment to ensuring quality in law enforcement.

Right: Mayor Mel Pennington pins the new Chief of Police, Sandra Rhodes.

The Hartsville Police Department is on Facebook. Become a fan for important messages and safety tips.

PRIDE PARK IS UP AND COMING

Left: The Pride Park fence before the renovation

BEFORE

Right: The Pride Park fence after the renovation

AFTER

Did you hear what happened in Hartsville?

Sign up for text alerts from Nixle.com. The Hartsville PD sends out emergency alerts and community messages. The service is free!

Join Nixle. Click link above.

Hosting an event within city limits?

If you or your organization are hosting an event held within the city limits, you will require a SPECIAL EVENTS PERMIT. This application can be found on our website (click here), or by calling the Hartsville Planning department at 843-383-3009. Completed permits are due at least 10 days prior to the event.