Operation Helping Hands

The Hartsville Police Department and you...

A partnership for a safer community

The purpose and goal of Operation Helping Hands is to identify members of the Hartsville community who might need special assistance during an emergency. In the event of a natural disaster or a needed evacuation, public officials would quickly be able to locate citizens with disabilities or special needs that might require assistance to get to a safe location.

The information gathered by the Hartsville Police Department (your name, address, phone numbers, relatives, special needs) will be kept confidential and in a secure database at the police department. You will not be contacted unless an emergency exists.
